Mr. J. F. Stafford has purchased the guns and equipments formerly owned by the Eagle Rifle.

Mr. J. K. Gardner, of Cheney, was in the city yesterday, calling on friends and attending to business matters.

Mr. Durand was walking around quite brisk yesterday. He says the newspapers cause nearer sending him to the grave than the doctors.

Prof. D. S. Pence left yesterday morning for Newton to examine manuscripts of the contestants for admittance to the military and naval academy.

Bruggeman, the artistic tailor, has built an addition to his workshop at 214 North Main street, large enough to accommodate from twelve to fifteen workmen.

Samuel Hargrave and wife and J. W. Ewing and family, who have been visiting friends here for some time, returned yesterday via Missouri Pacific to Princeton, Ind.

Richard Haste and Mrs. M. E. Lease have been appointed to defend Johnson, the man accused of obtaining property under false pretense and awaiting trial before the district court.

Mr. H. B. Merrill, of Salina, secretary and treasurer of the Hope Stucco and Calced Plaster company, who is introducing his work in Wichita, called in company with Secretary Porter yesterday.

The Rev. J. W. Love returned yesterday from the meeting of the classes of the Reformed church at Iowa for the Wichita district. He reports a large attendance and a good showing in church work.

Mr. Wm. Everett, of Highland, Illinois, who is interested in a process for milk condensing, is in the city and says that he has an eye on Wichita for business, and his company may locate a plant here.

The Hon. Wm. Greiffenstein returned yesterday from his ranch in the territory, where he has been since last November. He says cattle are in good condition and everything all right except the market.

Mrs. S. R. Grant, the agent, is delivering Mrs. Mary A. Livermore's great work, "My Story of the War," a rare and great book of historical correctness of noble deeds and a thousand and one acts of patriotic women on the field and in the hospital.

Mr. J. T. Hatfield, of Cincinnati, son of H. C. Hatfield, of this city, who is out paying his parents an annual visit, made us a pleasant call yesterday. When we asked him how the great original porkopolis was doing, "Oh," answered his father, "Wichita is a bigger place than Cincinnati."

Officer Tom McNamara was last evening called up to the union depot. He found there looked up and seated in a freight car, a tall, lank, half breed from the Cherokee nation. He had beaten his way to this city from Fridonna and was glad to get out of the car now as he was once to get into.

J. W. Ewing and Samuel Harko, capitalists of Princeton, Indiana, who are visiting the city, called in company with R. M. Platt and Mr. Henry Fellows yesterday. This is not the first visit of these gentlemen to the Peerless Princess, but they declared that it was one of the most interesting.

Pat McDonald, of Delano township, seems to think the so-called town of recent date a very foolish affair. He says it was not enough to cause the average spring bug to lose his head, much less interfere with the chintz variety. Concerning the crops Pat says that the corn is damaged very little, if any, and the wheat will make a showing of forty bushels to the acre.

The many friends of Jos. J. Robertson will learn with regret of his death at Atlanta, Ga., on May 1st. The deceased has been afflicted for some time with consumption and had gone south in the hopes of benefiting his health when he grew worse and died. He was the owner of quite a large amount of valuable real estate in Wichita and Kansas.

A centennial lawn fete will be given by the directors of the City hospital at Lakeside, the residence of Mrs. W. C. Woodman, on North Waco avenue, on Wednesday evening, May 13. This will be for the benefit of that most worthy institution, the city hospital. The ladies having this in charge will be dressed in the styles of a century ago, and besides choice refreshments other attractions such as the minstrel and Virginia reel will be offered.

John V. Moffitt will depart Wednesday for the northwest, where he is interested in several speculative enterprises. He has investments and schemes in Ogden, Utah, and Ellensburg, Washington territory. At the latter place he is building a hotel and constructing a street railway under a fifty years exclusive franchise, on which the enterprise is estimated at $8 per cent above expenses, and donates 300 town lots. W. M. Dignon, of this city and other local capitalists are interested in the enterprises—State Journal.

NOTES FROM THE NORTH.

Up at Whitaker's mammoth packing plant they are putting in the eight mammoth trying vats, and carpenters are putting in a high fence all around and things look very fine.

Capt. Maher's building just across the track is receiving the finishing touches and from Eighteenth street north to the car works one cannot get away from the cheerful tick-tock of the hammers or the ring of the mason's trowel. A curious state of things, truly, for a dead town mourning over so lugubriously by infantile rivals.

THE GERMAN CATHOLIC FAIR.

The fair continues to draw large crowds of people and to give promise of being a highly enjoyable and entertaining affair for the remainder of the week. The voting was as follows: For the gold watch Anna Wagner received 378 and Lucy Mathewson 367.

The candidates for the gold headed cane will show themselves Wednesday evening, June 1st, at the residence of Mr. H. H. Hargrave. Sister Modesta received 46, Anna Mosbacher 55. There were several items raffled off which will be advertised later on. Everybody go and help the good work.

DECORATION DAY.

The Garfield Post at its meeting last night accepted an invitation to attend the First M. E. church on the last Sunday preceding Decoration day. The invitation was extended by the Rev. Savin. A committee of arrangements was appointed consisting of Col. M. Stewart, Col. L. N. Woodcock and John A. Wallace. It is requested that anyone knowing the name of any soldier who has died and buried in either cemetery report the same to Corporal Wallace at the county clerk's office.

A letter was read from the Hon. Geo. T. Anthony accepting the invitation to deliver the memorial address and a letter of thanks ordered sent in behalf of the post. Some are favoring the plan of returning to the Crawford opera house after decorating the graves, for the address.

AT HOME FOR A FEW DAYS.

Hon. Wm. Greiffenstein is up from his ranch in Indian Territory to enjoy again for a few days the sweets of civilized life and the comfort of his palatial home and its warm hearted inmates. Mrs. G. thinks of accompanying him when he goes back for a short season of wood and prairie life. Mr. G.'s place is some fifteen miles or so northeast of Purcell and is a splendid hunting and fishing place, being wild and romantic. His hosts of friends in this city are always glad to see his familiar form and to meet and greet a man whose liberality, enterprise and faith have done so much for this city, of which he is one of the real founders. For the last year or two his territorial interests have kept him away so much that he is a stranger to many of the new comers.

THE WICHITA COLONY.

J. A. Shearer is up from the old soldiers colony in Oklahoma, which our readers know went from this city. Mr. S. who came up on business, arriving here yesterday says that they are located eighteen miles west of Oklahoma City on the Canadian river, their town being on the west half of section six, township twelve, range five, which can be located on any sectional map of the Oklahoma. There will be a little contesting in this colony which covers about three hundred farms. The fellows who rushed in before the 2nd are giving up and clearing out, twelve of their number being under arrest. The colony is busy plowing, planting, quarrying, fishing and building. Deer and turkey are plentiful. Mr. S. says two deer and several turkeys were brought into camp before breakfast the morning that he left. There is no sickness and has been no trouble, no shooting nor killing.

THE DEAD DEPARTED BOOMERS.

There are few who have noted or who are aware of the fact that Wichita lost a good many people in the Oklahoma sneak and prankful enterprise. But the fact remains that this city is represented in every town and settlement of that territory, the greater towns containing more people from Wichita than from any other single city. In some of the places Wichita people are numbered by the hundreds. At least two towns are controlled by them. One settlement is something like three hundred claims is dominated by Wichita people. It is asserted by many that the city has no fewer inhabitants than she had April 10th. That can hardly be. Of course, they cannot be missed from the aggregation of the business streets, but its a fact that a host of them are still absent. In another month, in all probability, their places will be nearly all filled and within two or three months not a few of them will find their way back, but Oklahoma will be thoroughly leavened with the spirit of Wichita.

COUNTY S. CONVENTION.

Rev. J. A. Bright, the general state secretary, writes that he will be at the convention prepared to do his best work. He reports that the work is in excellent condition; splendid conventions everywhere. Money comes freely for the prosecution of the work.

Parents are requested to bear in mind the meeting on Friday afternoon at a quarter past four. It is thought there ought to be 1,000 children in the First M. E. church at that hour. This is the great event of the convention for the little folks and Brother Bright will give them one of his brightest and best talks.

Prof. Cruseberry will change time with Mr. J. A. North, and present his paper on Saturday afternoon, Mr. North coming on at 8:15 p. m. Friday.

A large delegation is expected from the country, and the committees having the matter in charge are doing all in their power to get up an interesting program and furnish the entertainment expected on the occasion.

UP AT THE PACKING HOUSES.

The hog receipts at the Union stock yards are increasing under stiffening prices. Dolds are slaughtering well up to the capacity of the house. That great establishment is curing from forty to fifty tons of meat per day with every department full of life. The amount of sausage turned out daily is something wonderful. The lard flows in continuous streams from the great rendering tanks into the barrels. It pours out as clear as the stream from a mountain spring, barrels upon barrels of it every hour in the day. Five barrels are knocked down and swung up at a time. The coolers are being filled with thousands of cold, white carcasses hanging heels up, making a veritable forest of meat.

The Whitaker plant is being rushed at a great rate. Large forces of men are busy upon every building and upon every department. The roofs are already on the main structures and the machinery and the thousands and thousands of appliances are being placed. Superintendent Hamilton thinks that without doubt the last day of July will find the Whitaker plant steamed up and ready for both cattle and hogs and that before that both of the plants will be running to their fullest capacity.

Mr. C. V. Jacobs died at his home, No. 520 North Main street, yesterday morning after a painful illness. His remains will be buried this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late residence on North Topeka.
